9. Tournament format

Qualification:

Each player will play 6 games on a pair of lanes. After each two games players will move one pair to the right. Best 60 players will advance in this way. Best six players will advance directly into step III. Players from 7th to 24th place advance to step II. Players from 25th to 60th advance to step I. Lanes for the play-off matches will decide the higher seed in each match.

As a part of the qualification there is DUO competition. Each player can play this with a partner, the only rules are that player cannot play in more than one double and the names of the double has to be announced before the first player of the double will play first start.

STEP I

36 players will play 3 games including handicap. The roster is 25th against 60th, 26th against 59th and so on.

STEP II

18 winners from step I will play against 18 players who advanced directly from the qualification. There will be 3 games including handicap.

STEP III

6 players directly from the qualification and 18 winners from step II will play 2 games on total score including handicap.

STEP IV

12 winners from step III will play 2 games including handicap.

STEP V

6 winners from step IV will play one game including handicap. Lanes are decided according to the ranking in qualification.

MASTER FINALE

First and second player after step V will play one game against each other to win.

10. Tie breaking rule

Higher highest game decides in qualification. In all steps there will be one ball and the higher count wins.
